ADMINISTRATION

1. Incoming messages for all students will be taken by the Training Assistant, [] located in Room 109 of this building. These will be placed on a board in the rear of this room. Urgent calls will be delivered to you in the classroom and you are free to leave the room to answer them.
2. Inside the main entrance of this building is a coke machine, milk bar, candy and ice cream machines as well as an instant coffee and chocolate machine. For those preferring regular coffee, there is a snack bar just inside the main entrance of Alcott Hall. Light lunches, newspapers, etc., may be procured at this snack bar.
3. The only cafeteria in the vicinity is located across the street in the large building known as the R & S Building. Your badges need not be shown upon entering the cafeteria. Breakfast is served starting at 0715 hours and lunches starting at 1100 hours.
4. Transportation is available between the Main Entrance of the Pentagon and [] via shuttle bus. This bus, from the Pentagon is identified by a red sign that lists Bldgs. I, J, K, and L, North Bldg, and others. It leaves the Pentagon at 15-minute intervals commencing at 0835 and continues until 1700 hours. Upon entering the shuttle bus your identification badge should be shown to assure the driver that Agency-connected personnel are using the Agency bus. Each afternoon at 1510 hours, transportation will be furnished, by special shuttle bus, to the Pentagon for the members of this class.
5. For officers located in downtown Washington or at one of the nearby Military Posts, the following information is pertinent:
 - a. If you contemplate driving to [] you will have to park on the street as indicated on the map. Due to personnel who park in this vicinity and must be at the Main Navy Building at 0730 hours, parking is almost unavailable on the street after 0715 hours.
 - b. The D. C. Transit bus line marked "Potomac Park" - R-4 departs from 16th and "K" diagonally across from the Statler Hotel and travels south on 16th to "I", west on "I" to 19th then South to Constitution and again west to 23rd Street, around the Lincoln Memorial and down to our area, terminating directly in front of R & S Building.

- c. There are plenty of taxis in the area. The taxis operate on a zone system. From downtown Washington you will traverse one or more zones to reach Example: the taxi fare from 12th and Pennsylvania Aves. should be 60¢. A word of caution. Be careful in taking taxis from or to the District and Virginia. Determine the fare with the driver before taking the cab. Rates appear to be what the traffic will bear when you cross Memorial Bridge.
6. If, for any reason, you are unable to attend classes, please notify the Chief Instructor at the extension given you or Captain John Bulkeley in the Pentagon on extension 78678.

PROJECT USEFUL NO. 4 - Film Schedule

The following films will be shown to any students who wish to remain after the normal day's course of instruction. They have been selected as films to illustrate the various facets of clandestine activities and give a further "feel" to our activities. Films will be shown in Room 153, Building [] commencing at 1500 hours. Students remaining for films will be released at approximately 1630 hours and will have to secure their own transportation from Building []

25X1

Tuesday, 12 November - "OSS"

A commercial film starring Alan Ladd and Geraldine Fitzgerald. This is a composite account of OSS activities in Europe with emphasis on sabotage. Good illustrations of training for clandestine operations, the use of clandestine methods and the employment of clandestine radio communications in wartime.

Wednesday, 13 November - "Walk East on Beacon"

A commercial film which illustrates the clandestine methods and techniques used by the Communists and other services. Cut-outs, dead drops, personal meetings, couriers, etc., are in evidence as the Soviet espionage apparatus attempts a penetration of a highly classified U. S. Government project.

Thursday, 14 November - "Forbidden Area"

A kinescope of a Television presentation of "Playhouse 90". It is based on the novel "Forbidden Area" by Pat Frank. Scheduled to follow the National Indication Center lecture it will show, a la Hollywood, the novelist's concept of the NIC.

Friday, 15 November - "Captain Cyr's Report"

This is a filmed verbal report made of Captain Cyr's debriefing in OSS in 1944. It is a fabulous account which seems incredible as he describes his activities in Brittany in early June, 1944. Clandestine action, espionage, evasion and guerrilla warfare are all recounted as well as Russian Cossack atrocities. Although completely verbal, the picture described held the attention for the entire 90 minutes.

Monday, 18 November - "The Man Who Never Was"

An excellent film on the problems to be faced in military cover and deception. From the CIA viewpoint, this film is of value to illustrate the enemy counterespionage tactics.

Tuesday, 19 November - "Hell Raiders of the Deep"

An Italian commercial film with excellent "dubbing-in" of English. This concerns the Italian under-water sabotage efforts at Gibraltar and Alexandria, Egypt, during World War II. The two-man submersible craft employed were later captured by the British who attempted to use them in Norway.

Wednesday, 20 November - "Cockleshell Heroes"

A film illustrating clandestine maritime small boat operations. Of value to CIA and the Military in depicting the difficulties in training and launching such operations.

Friday, 22 November - "For Whom the Bell Tolls"
